"Contemporaries assert that Cooper was certainly the author of this tale, the copyright proceeds of which were regularly received by him; the publishers of the work also believed him to be the author. He was so very unpopular at the time that he, very reasonably, deemed it best for the prospects of the publication that he should appear in no closer relation than that of editor." — Foley.

• Chlorophyll a (Chl a) is the primary photosynthetic pigment in all photosynthetic organisms. It is a green pigment that absorbs light energy in the blue and red regions of the visible spectrum. Chl a is found in the thylakoid membranes of chloroplasts in plants and algae, and in the plasma membrane of cyanobacteria.
